FARMVILLE

It is rumored that we are to have another bank in town, making the third. When the second was established here, the First National, some people got to shaking heads and to say, "there was no room for it," but it has been a splendid success and in the meantime the venerable Planters has grown stronger and stronger. The new venture will be in the keeping of the young men of Farmville, as I am told and that means assured success They have the capital, the capacity and the courage and these three C's must win. It does look as though to the making of many banks there is no end, and we all know that much money is a vexation of soul. Farmville is no one-horse town, nor one-bank town, nor one man's town. We need a dozen more manufacturing plants, two more railroads and a boat line to the ocean. The only other thing that we do not need is another school for girls. Ours is big enough for present and prospective purposes.

With the coming of warmer weather our dry goods men and dealers in bonnets are wearing brighter faces. They had a long seige of winter to contend with. And the soda water fountains are fizzing away. The bare-footed boy has gotten accustomed to the gravel walks and now and then takes a swim in the Appomattox.

Fishing seems to be a lost art with our people, though "Ben" Cox and "Bill" Burger will be sure to have their outing before the season closes, and they can catch them.

Farmers never talk much of tobacco plants these days. It goes without saying that there will be a scarcity. Labor is the live question. The wise thing to do is to recognize that labor is scarce and not to plant more than can be worked, and if this means a few acres let it be a few acres.

Mr. T. O. Sandy is making seventy-five bushels of corn to the acre and at that lick it does not take many acres to supply corn for the family. And ten years ago Mr. Sandy's farm was no better than the average farm of Southside Virginia. He also cut last season four and one half tons of hay to the acre and that's equal to any yield in the Shenandoah Valley or any of the recognized hay states. What has done other Southside Virginia farmers may do. Mr. Sandy enters upon the new crop season with the confident assurance that he will make 100 bushels of corn to the acre and cut six tons of hay to the acre. That's more than making two blades of grass grow where only one grew before.

Col. Jas. Lyons has been in town of late looking after law business. I remember his grandfather, the Hon. James Lyons, of Richmond, who always impressed me as being one of the most courtly and elegant gentlemen it was ever my privilege to meet with, and then his father, Judge Wm. Lyons, an ornament to the Bench and the pride of Richmond. Worthy son of noble sires.

The new bank will be called the Citizens' State Bank of Farmville, and will open the 1st of June in the building so long occupied by the late Mr. E. Wiltse. The very place will inspire diligence, thoughtfulness and consummate care. Capt. E. Scott Martin will be president and he will be sustained in the work by experienced and able advisors.

Maj. A. R. Venable entertained the students of the Normal school who attend the Presbyterian church at his country home, on last Saturday. Officers and teachers of the Sunday School were also in attendance and the evening was a memorable and enjoyable one.

Mr. R. T. Brock, who has been often asked to announce himself as candidate for the next legislature is out in a modest card, in which he expresses a willingness to serve if the voters so desire. He lays stress on a "clean canvass" and will to create no other.

The stock holders of the Virginia State Company, located at Avondale met here recently and the report made by them was of the most encouraging nature. The officers are W. P. Venable, president, T. H. Gordon, vice president and general manager, and Walker Scott Sec'ty. and Treasurer. Among the directors are representative business men of Washington, D. C., Petersburg and Chatham as well as of Farmville.

The sudden death of Mr. E. J. White head, clerk of our court, was a great shock to our people. He was a good citizen, faithful and efficient official.

Mr. John R. Martin has just gotten an automobile and seems to enjoy his "spins" on the road. The 24-seated one to run between Farmville and Hampden Sidney is not yet on duty.

Our yards and gardens and flower squares are being clothed in beauty, and we are going to have strawberries notwithstanding the frost bite.

The Normal girls turn out to our church services in such numbers that each occasion has the appearance of a college commencement.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Walker now occupy their home in East Farmville, so that Mrs. C. M. Walker, Captain and Mrs. E. Scott Martin are the sole occupants of the old Warren homestead on Main Street, and by the way one of the most attractive homes in all Virginia.

The sound of the hammer is still heard on the new Methodist church. It is said that it will be ready by the first of September, and when ready there will be an imposing dedication and a mighty outpouring of people.

President Jarman, of the Normal, speaks in highest terms of the Jamestown Exposition. He says it is on a much larger scale than he had anticipated. The gate receipts for the month of May are going to be distressingly small. Of course Virginia Day will be an exception. All of us should be there on that day and continue to make it a "red letter" day in the history of the Commonwealth as the Governor in his proclamation suggests.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Syrup.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever."

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a gatesman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months."

OLD BUCKINGHAM.

THE GRAND OLD COUNTY PHOTOGRAPHED.

Many Interesting Reports Made of Her People.

Announcement.

To the Voters of Buckingham:

After being requested by many of our Democratic friends in Buckingham County, we now announce ourselves as the Independent candidates for the office of Sheriff of Buckingham County. We appreciate the kindness of our Republican friends in endorsing our candidacy and they have our thanks, but we want it distinctly understood that we are Independent candidates for this office and we have been all the time, and have been endorsed by our Republican friends. Knowing the duties of this office we feel that we can manage the affairs of the office with due credit to ourselves. Thanking you for your consideration expressed heretofore and bespeaking your further consideration, we are, Yours faithfully.

C. D. McCRAW
P. A. CRIGG.

For the Senate.

To the Voters of the Eighteenth Senatorial District, (Appomattox, Buckingham, Fluvanna and Charlotte.)

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the State Senate, subject to your approval at the Democratic primary, pledging myself to the faithful discharge of the duties of the office if elected, and a watchful eye to the wishes and interest of our District.

Your obedient servant,
T. W. SCOTT.
t-d-o-P Drakes Branch, Va.

Buckingham.

This paper published the action taken by the Democratic County Committee which met here on the 13th. The executive committee consisting of one member from each district in Buckingham is to meet here on the 1st day of Circuit Court to arrange for the expenses, and other details concerning the primary. Mr. P. A. Grigg, who was a member of the committee from Mayaville District, tendered his resignation which was accepted and Mr. C. H. Anderson was chosen to fill the vacancy.

Much is being printed in one of the local papers about whether we should have a lawyer as our representative in the Legislature, the simple fact that he is a lawyer, in my mind is nothing against his being sent to the legislature, and Judge Hall or Judge Moss either can represent the county more intelligently than the average farmer can, simply because they know more about the practical workings of the law that have been tried and the needed changes.

It looks now as if the present office holders in the county will have no opposition, but it may not be the case. Mr. G. L. Spencer and Mr. J. T. Oliver are so far the candidates for Supervisors from Maysville district. Mr. Grigg has long held this office, and is chairman of the Board, although much older men than he have been serving with him, showing in what esteem he has been held by his fellow officers.

In my letter last week I mentioned the fact that Mr. Spencer would not vote against his son, who is a nominee of the Republican party, and in the same connection said that Mr. Spencer, (Politically speaking) had no opinion of an independent candidate for any of the officers to be filled at the coming election. Not that it was at all a personal matter, but that he would support no independent candidates, then I was unfortunate in my choice of words. Mr. Oliver, Mr. Grigg and Mr. McCraw are all my friends and neighbors and either one or all of them are capable of filling the offices for which they aspire and having said this much and having made it plain (I hope) that it is not my intention, nor the policy of this paper to do a wrong to any individual in politics or in anything else I dismiss the subject for something more pleasant.

The ladies made quite a neat sum by the sale of refreshments the night of the school final.

The Presbyterian parsonage is nearly paid for and some much needed repairs have been done.

We miss the boys who have gone off to work since school closed.

Dr. and Mrs. Morris have moved into their new home and had the phone line extended out to the place.

Mrs. Pratt and family will be here for the summer at their old home.

The prices for everything to eat continue to advance and now we hear of dollar wheat on the market, so this is not the only country in which things eatable are selling at advanced prices, as Senator Martin is quoted as saying he paid as high as $1.20 cents a dozen for eggs while he and his wife were in Egypt.

The old soldiers of Buckingham are smiling to think of the happy time of the Reunion in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Garnett visited Mr. A. C Garnett, Sr. on Sunday and I hear the old gentleman was somewhat stronger.

Mrs. J. H. Fitzgerald is visiting in Lynchburg.

The wheat and oat crops are looking well here and tobacco plants are doing well.

Mr. John J. Hickok, the retired capitalist, who died in Richmond last week, was a brother of Mrs. Pattie Moseley and Misses Alice and Lou Hickok, of this place.

Rev. Mr. Davis, of the Baptist Church, preached a sermon Sunday taking for his text a part of the 28 verse of the 32nd chapter of Genesis, "For as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed." This was a sermon particularly to church members and the speaker in a very forcible way reminded us that to have power with God we must lead such lives as that we can keep in touch with God, using as an illustration the trolley used on a street car, take the trolley from the wire charged with electricity and the connection is severed, and the car ceases to go on; so by sinning we loose connection with God. The speaker took up such evil practices as are too frequently indulged in by church members, such as non-attendance at church, not speaking to your neighbor, dancing, and indulging in intoxicating drinks. This last evil he dwelt on at some length, citing a number of touching incidents that he had personal knowledge of, to show how if the habit was indulged in that it would eventually ruin a man and his family, sometimes morally, spiritually and financially.

We greatly miss Mr. C. A. Spencer when attending the Baptist Church, he was such a good man and so active in the affairs of his church.

Enonville.

On account of so much rain and cold weather, our farmers are very much behind with work, few if any have finished planting corn. Tobacco plants are reported plentiful. Wheat is looking fairly well. Gardens will be unusually late.

On Thursday, May 16th, at Richmond, Va., 8:30 o'clock p. m., Miss Lula Blanche Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Coleman, was married to Mr. Hubert Henry Dowdy, a prosperous lumber dealer of Cumberland county.

The bride, a lovely blonde, wore a handsome going away gown of blue taffeta silk with hat and gloves to match. Being one of our most charming young ladies she will be greatly missed by her many friends, among whom she is universally popular, her disposition is faultless.

Miss Cora Coleman, cousin of the bride, who accompanied them, wore black taffeta silk. The groom wore a handsome black suit. After a short tour they will return and be at home to their friends, after May 25th, at their future residence near Cumberland Courthouse.

Mr. Grover Ripley, of Nelson county, spent last week visiting his brother and other relatives at Enonville.

Miss Ida Woody, of Winginia, who has been spending some time with Miss Lottie Gunter, has returned to her home.

Mr. Irad Gunter, will leave to-day to join his wife, who is spending some weeks with her parents in the Hill City.

Misses Wheeler and Adkins are visiting at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Steger.

Miss Connie Coleman will leave in a few days for New Haven, Conn., where she expects to enter Yale College.

Mr. A. E. Coleman, who is recovering from an attack of acute rheumatism, will attend the Exposition in June. Quite a number of our people will attend during July and August.

Mr. Louis Gilliam has accepted a position in West Virginia.

Mr. Humphrey Steger has purchased a fine printing press.

Mrs. Maria Louise Farrar, of Lexington, Va., is visiting her niece, Mrs. W. K. Saunders. Her son, Dr. Farrar, of Washington and Lee University, will go abroad again this year after his duties are over at the University.

Mr. F. E. Davidson, of MacDonald, W. Va., who spent some time in Buckingham for his health, returned home last week very much improved. While he visited Jamestown, but did not give a very flattering account of his trip.

INTERESTING STORIES ABOUT HOME FOLKS.

Our Correspondents relate the New of the County.

The Parting.

If Lucinda should leave,
You ask me in your smiling way,
What I would do if I some day
Should wake up and find you gone away.

I would treat your going as a jest,
And smile as brightly as the rest,
And wear my prettiest hat and dress.

And I would always look so fair,
And wear fresh roses in my hair,
That they would say she does not care.

But down beside the flowing brook,
Where violets first begin to look,
I'd never go nor take that book.

Or read there in the early spring,
When love was but a tiny thing,
And wild birds first began to sing.

Oh no I would not go that way,
Nor wear the dress I wore that day,
Or would I ever kneel and pray.

If heart would be so full of woe,
To think that you away should go,
But then perhaps 'tis better so.

And I shall smile and look so fair,
Unless my feet should lead me there,
That all will say she does not care.

DEAR TIMES: It seems our correspondent is taking one of Rip Van Winkle's naps, and while she is dreaming, I'll drop in again with my little story, but I promised not to stay here.

Were I to write anything interesting, would have to anticipate undeveloped events, as nothing of interest has transpired since I last wrote.

Everything looks beautiful; the wild flowers are blooming, the birds are singing, and nature with it's verdure reminds one of the "Emerald isle," but old Jack Frost came to see us not long ago. He did not do much damage as the gardens were too late for him to do much biting. However, he kissed the pretty lilacs and forbade them sending forth their fragrance this year.

I have been at home too close to note, wha. the farmers are doing, but rather think they are behind, as so much rain has retarded their progress.

The tie wagons continue to haul, and man are seen toiling on as if they had no interest in agricultural pursuits, but I suppose the lucrative prices are a greater incentive.

I am glad to say a nice little Sunday School has been organized at Maple Grove and seems to be working harmoniously. Some are very much enthused. I hope they will hold out faithful to the end. I am sorry to say that the church is still without a pastor. Not a service has been held there this year. Can our former pastor take a hint?

Miss Sallie Saunders, of South Carolina, who has been sending for Mrs. Kirby Smith, will soon leave for her home by way of Jamestown Exposition. She seems to be very popular, but I don't know how many sad hearts she will leave behind.

Miss Maude Brown, of Nelson, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Dixon, left today. From all accounts Buckingham will have a representative in her county soon. Mrs. Dixon keeps very feebly.

Since writing this letter I have received news, which will no doubt interest some of our readers. I hear Mr. David Walker, a former resident of this county, and son of Mr. James A. Walker, is to be married June 9th. I did not hear to whom.

Right many speak of going to the Exposition, but if the Governor of Virginia and his fair lady had to ride in a dirt cart how will the rest of us, insignificant creatures fare? I must think he did it to be exemplary, if not, no doubt they enjoyed it, as a step from high life drove away the monotony and caused them to realize what the poor so often endure.

Mr. Gus. White gave a graphophonic entertainment at his home last Saturday which was hugely enjoyed by the children of the neighborhood. The music was both humorous and sacred.

Am sorry to say that several contagious diseases namely; whooping cough, measles and mumps have affected the average of our Bent Creek school, which was progressing nicely, but,—

"Soon the lessons and tasks will be ended
And the school for a time be dismissed
I hope the little "kids" have done splendid,
And will say "good bye" in sweet bliss.

Soon the broken-hearted teacher will leave us
But her stay has been pleasant awhile,
May the guardian angel protect her
And help her to sometimes smile.

Wasp not dear teacher for loved ones,
Who have gone on before for awhile,
God will surely take care of the widow
As he does the little, innocent child.

We shall miss you when we gather with flowers
Morning, evening and noon,
The old schoolhouse will be empty,
But we hope you will come again soon.

Adieu, adieu for the present,
Love will follow wherever you roam,
God only can lighten your burdens,
And give you a heavenly home."

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's Colic, cholera and diarrhoea Remedy. During the third term of a century in which it has been in use, people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.

Senator Platt says he wishes to be left alone in order that he "may enjoy life in the flat he has taken." The Senator must be pretty much of an optimist, after all, to imagine he can enjoy life in a flat.
